

ARRANGE PROGRAM FOR LABOR DAY

Parade, Addresses And Dance
Will Comprise Celebration Monday

At Labor Hall, Sunday, arrangements were completed for the celebration of Labor Day, Monday, September 2, in this city. The celebration will be held under the auspices of organized labor of Rhinelander and will be one of the greatest events in the history of the city. All manufacturing plants, business places and industries of every order will be closed to allow their employees to have the day to themselves.

The day's program will open with a big parade at 1 o'clock p. m. in which all laboring people, lodges and societies have been invited to participate. All children in the city not over twelve years of age are also urged to be in line. A free flag and ice cream cone will be presented to each child. The procession will form at Labor Hall on Brown Street and march through the principal streets to the city park where the exercises will take place.

At the park addresses will be given by prominent clergymen and citizens, including Mayor Braeger, Rev. Dr. Lienfelder, Father J. N. Johnson, Rev. Grant Clark and Attorney A. J. O'Mella.

Refreshments will be served on the grounds and provision will be made to supply comfortable seats for all present.

In the evening a grand ball will be held at the Armory, for which the Military orchestra will furnish music. Tickets $1.00. The committee in charge of the dance consists of Hans Hanson, Garrett Lee, Ed. Shepard, Wm. Olson, J. A. Germond and Ely Counter.

The Military Band has been engaged to supply music throughout the day and evening and will render several concerts. Don't remain at home on Labor Day but turn out and have a good time with the working people. Charles Keep is chairman of the day, Louis Danner, secretary, and Wm. Olson, treasurer.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY

Bad Coins Make Their Appearance
In This City

Within the last week several pieces of counterfeit money have been passed at business places in this city. Dollars, quarters, dimes and nickels of spurious make have made their appearance. The queer coins are easily detected by their dull lead color and dead sound. Although some of the coins are slightly battered the impression and milling are fairly good giving evidence that the "manufacturers" understood their business. Seven queer quarters were detected by one merchant this week and returned to those who passed them. The parties had accepted the coins in good faith and were not aware that they were counterfeits. A bad dollar was accepted at a saloon Friday night.

Chief of Police Straub holds the opinion that the coins are being turned out either in this city or vicinity and is making an investigation with the hopes of learning the source of their origin.

SOO LINE'S NEW MOVE

The sale of the Wisconsin & Michigan railway to the Soo line is again indicated by the proposed sale of lands along the shore from Green Bay to Oconto. The fact that the options cover only strips of lands instead of tracts make it seem more than probable that the projected purpose is for a railroad right of way and this is linked with purchase by John Marsh of land in and near Green Bay.

HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

French Sisters, Formerly Of This City, Are The Victims

Misses Ada and Violet French, who formerly resided in this city were injured in an auto accident near Marinette last Wednesday.

A. A. Schmidt of Milwaukee lost control of the machine and it turned turtle in a ditch on a dangerous curve six miles from Marinette on the Peshigo road, pinning Schmidt and the four girls who were in the car under the machine. The fact that the top on the auto held up the heavy part of the machine, probably saved the lives of its occupants. The girls in the car were the Misses Sarah Brink, Menominee; Elfrida Thompson, Menominee; Ada and Violet French, Marinette.

Miss Ada French was unconscious when pulled from under the car. The most seriously injured was Miss Violet French, but her condition is not critical. All four girls were badly cut and bruised.

GOVERNMENT MAY ALSO PAY MILITIA

Officers and Men Of Guard Favor
Bill Now Pending In Congress

The Wisconsin National guard, officers and men, warmly endorse the purpose of the organized militia pay bill now pending in congress. Adgt. Gen. C. R. Boardman said in an interview that the proposed plan is reasonable and also highly desirable from the standpoint of efficiency.

At present the state troops are in the service only of the state and are paid by those sovereignties. Under the bill proposed by the committee on military affairs, they will receive pay also from the United States government, on the theory that they are serving the federal government as well as the state.

"Under present conditions," said Adgt. Gen. Boardman, "the Wisconsin troops can legally be called for service by the president for national defense as well as by the governor for state purposes. Thus they are not only being educated for any duty for the state of Wisconsin but for any duty for the United States. The constitution says the militia may be used in the United States service only to suppress insurrections, repel invasions and execute the laws of the union. The courts have construed that the president cannot use the militia outside of the United States; they could not, therefore be sent into Mexico unless they volunteered their services. Under the proposed law the president can order them out just as the regular army may be ordered out."

EARLY MORNING FIRE

Fire at two o'clock Tuesday morning threatened the destruction of the building on Brown street occupied by Dovey & McLaughlin's saloon. The blaze originated under a side walk grating on the Rives St. side of the building and was making rapid headway up the wall when discovered. With little effort the fire was extinguished by the department.

IN NEW QUARTERS

The American Express office is now located in the building on Daverport street formerly occupied by the Hub Clothing Store. The new quarters are well lighted and commodious. Agent Reed hopes to be comfortably settled in the office by the end of the week.

BREAKS GAME LAWS

Joe Wojtkecki, who lives near Jennings, pleaded guilty before Judge Walker, Monday to hunting partridges out of season. He was fined $25 and costs which he paid. Deputy Game Warden Russell arrested Wojtkecki.

City Schools Will Open Next Monday Morning

Teachers and Pupils are Prepared for Year's Work--List of Teachers and Grades

The Rhinelander public schools' visibility of subjects to be chosen. Superintendent Colburn can be found at the High school building and will be pleased to explain the subjects offered and make suggestions to parents about what may be best to be done. It is hoped that all pupils will be in their places the first day, and that parents will see that they are regular and punctual in their attendance during the year.

Parents should visit the schools as often as possible and watch the progress of the pupils in whom they are interested. In case pupils do not do well, a conference with the teacher and superintendent is always advisable. The assignments of teachers to the various grades are published below:

IN REAL ESTATE BUSINESS

T. J. Owen Will Deal In County and City Property

T. J. Owen has engaged in the real estate business in Rhinelander. He has already several parcels of land and other property for sale which he advertises in this issue of the New North.

Mr. Owen is one of the old residents of the city and county and has followed woods work for years. He is well fitted for his new business and in his dealings with the public can be thoroughly relied upon. He will deal in all kinds of real estate, lands and city property, and will have some good bargains from time to time. Don't fail to read Mr. Owen's advertisements and keep posted on what he has to offer.

MISS McRAE IN BUSINESS

She Takes Possession Of the Bronson Store Monday

The news, tobacco and confectionery store on Brown street which was established and conducted for twenty years by the late C. D. Bronson, will hereafter be under the proprietorship of Miss Kate McRae, who assumed charge of the business Monday.

Miss McRae has for the last eight years been employed at the store and is well known and popular among the trade. She thoroughly understands the business and under her guidance it should continue to grow and prosper. Her friends wish her every success. The store will be known as "The Bronson Store."

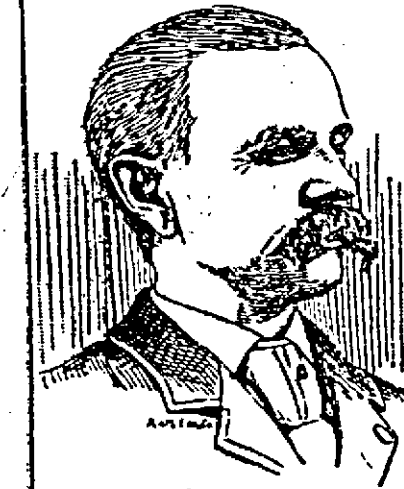

Mrs. Manford Taggart returned today from a visit with Medford relatives.

DEATH CLAIMS LEVI J. BILLINGS

County Judge and Pioneer Resident Answers the Final Summons

The sad and shocking announcement Saturday morning that Judge Levi J. Billings had been suddenly called by death at 12:30 o'clock Friday night at his residence at 221 East Rives street, filled with deepest sorrow the hearts of his many friends in Rhinelander. The news could scarcely be believed as it was only two days before that Mr. Billings was seen attending to his duties at the court house, apparently in good health and displaying his usual cheerfulness. He was taken ill last Thursday evening and from that time declined steadily until death ceased his suffering at the hour above stated. His illness was diagnosed as heart failure superinduced by an acute attack of stomach trouble.

Levi Jones Billings was a native of Trenton Falls, N. Y., and was born November 28, 1833. At an early age he came with his parents to Wisconsin, locating near Burlington. Here he resided for many years and then moved to Green Bay. In 1861 he enlisted as a private in the 8th Wisconsin Volunteers and was mustered out at the close of the rebellion as a captain in the 25th Wisconsin. He served with valor and honor throughout the long struggle between the blue and gray and participated in many notable battles, including that of Pittsburg Landing. Of his war record he was exceedingly modest and rarely talked regarding it, not even to his family. In 1872 at Palmyra, Wis., Mr. Billings was joined in marriage to Miss Leora Washburn. One daughter was born to them, Miss Lola Billings, who with her mother survives the deceased.

Mr. Billings became a resident of Rhinelander in the fall of 1896, twenty-six years ago. He was one of the early citizens and watched the development of a small lumber village into a prosperous and enterprising city. He helped to make the history of this county and city. He was appointed county judge by Governor Schofield to fill the unexpired term of James Harrigan. To this office he was elected twice and was serving his second elective term at the time of his death. Previous to occupying the judge's office he acted as district attorney and city attorney and was for two years law examiner in the attorney general's office at Madison.

Perhaps no man in Rhinelander had a wider acquaintance than Judge Billings. Always of a genial disposition he won and held friends easily. He had a cheerful greeting for every one he met and his merry laugh was one of his characteristics. He was fond of out door life and maintained a summer home at Tomahawk Lake. As an official he was obliging and efficient. To the widow and daughter is expressed the sympathy of the community in their loss of a good husband and father. Deceased also leaves a brother, Rufus Billings, of Burlington, Wis.

MICHIGAN CORN POOR

Oneida County Farmers Should Not Feel Discouraged

Oneida county farmers should not get discouraged if their corn crop is not as good as usual. Just read the following from a writer in the Michigan Farmer. The counties referred to are in the best corn section of Michigan:

"Last week I made a trip down in Ingham and Wayne counties, attending some Grange rallies. At Williamston in Ingham county, I had the pleasure of meeting Judge Howard Weist at the hotel and he had just made a trip out to his farm near there. Speaking of the corn crop the judge said he had two fields of corn. On one he was sure that there would not be a ripe ear this year, and he did not think there would be on the other. Now this expresses just about as well as you can express the outlook for corn in this vicinity. Hardly any of the corn is yet tasseled out. Once in a while a tassel is beginning to show. Here it is the middle of August. Today is the 15th day of August, and what chance is there to have ripe corn. Of course, it is possible. We do not know what the future will bring forth. All we know is the past. We know that we had winter in April, and we may have summer in September and October. If we do, possibly we will get some corn, but I don't think we need to figure on it. I have made up my mind to let the corn crop go and take what I can get. It ought to be cultivated."

LOCAL TEAM WINS ANOTHER VICTORY

Defeats Birnamwood Aggregation Sunday By The Score
Of 7 To 2

In a game of ball Sunday between Birnamwood and Gaston's Colts, the Colts were again victorious by a score of 7 to 2. At no time this year, has a game been featured with so many brilliant, and likewise bone head plays. It was plain to everyone that Gaston's team was somewhat disorganized and as the visitors did not have their usual line up, the teams looked to be about evenly matched.

One arm Brown, who pitched for the visitors, merited a great many nice compliments. His work was unusually good, and he demonstrated that only one arm is necessary in the act of pitching.

Deakin was as wild as the proverbial March hare for the first 4 innings, but finally rounded into shape and had the country boys at his mercy.

Manager Gaston promises that the fans will see a different article of ball, when Antigo plays here at fair time, the 17th and 18th of September. There will be no game next Sunday unless the Odanah Indians should decide to come here at the last minute.

SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS

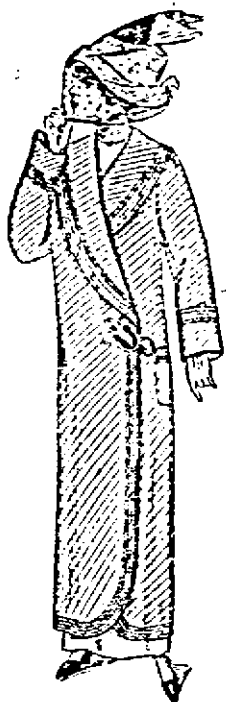

The critic on the Milwaukee Sentinel says of "The Shepherd of the Hills" the dramatization of Harold Bell Wright's famous novel, which has been made into a play by its author with the assistance of Elsbury W. Reynolds.

"Those who love a quiet, restful story will rejoice in 'The Shepherd of the Hills'. It is like a beautiful October afternoon, with the calm and beauty of summer, tempered by the cold breath of the yet distant winter."

"The Shepherd of the Hills" will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House on Friday, Sept. 13.

The numerous candidates for the various county offices are active this week and are making their last call on the voters before the primaries next Tuesday.

It Is Very Important That Young Ladies Going Away to College, Teaching or the Last Year of High School Should Have Proper Clothes

And especially is this so during their first college or teacher's year. When friendships are really made. Failure to give due consideration to these minor details have caused many young ladies to go through their freshman year ever conscious of the feeling that their clothes were not in keeping with their environment. This should not be. For what is college or teaching without its pleasant memories?

Besides it is a matter of taste rather than cost—for a young lady's school clothes should not be very elaborate nor expensive. But it is very essential that they should be well made and of fine quality materials. We have a splendid variety of styles in suits and coats, especially adopted for $10.00 and up. school wear at.....

Come in and look them over.

DON'T FORGET

That a new style of an R and G CORSET wouldn't go bad at all with that new garment of yours. We have them in all the new models.

KID GLOVES

Perhaps you are looking for a pair to match your dress, suit or coat and you have probably experienced the task before, but met with disappointment. We promise you that if you will give us the opportunity of serving your wants that we will not only please you but save you money as well.

NEW LINE OF LACES

You are probably in need of a few yards of trimmings to finish up your dress with. Well just a look in our NEW TRIMMING and LACE DEPT. will surprise you what a beautiful variety and large assortment we have gotten in. You will also find our prices to be very reasonable.

NEW LINE OF SHOES

U R Bound

To feel comfortable and yet possess all the shoe style if you buy your shoes at Jacobson's. Many new and very pretty styles to select from, including all the new lasts and leathers. All widths and sizes at moderate prices.

NEW LINE OF SKIRTS AND DRESSES

Have you seen the new styles in serge dresses for fall? JUST GOT IN—A swell line of them in the new NORFOLK and HARVARD models. Blue-Tan Leather and brown are the leading shades for this season. $10.00 to $12.50.

Park Falls—

The foundation for the Flambeau Paper Company's new finishing room and train shed has been completed, the brick work is well under way and the contractors expect to have the building completed by Oct. 1st. The building will be a very substantial structure, the finishing room having a cement floor on large steel girders supported by immense steel pillars on cement piers. There will be a large basement under the finishing room but none under the train sheds.

Florence—

J. F. Martin, manager in this district for the Michigan State Telephone Company, has received the blue prints and diagram of the new equipment that the company plans on installing at Iron River and Stambaugh to take the place of the equipment now in use and which is antiquated and very much overloaded. The equipment will be entirely new and modern and will be capable of accommodating eight hundred subscribers. Installation is expected to begin soon and the job will be rushed to completion as rapidly as possible. The new system will entail an expenditure of about $15,000.

Tomahawk—

Monday September 2, has been selected as the date of the annual picnic of the Old Settlers' Association at Bradley Park. A prize will be awarded to the oldest child born in Tomahawk. The contestants for this prize must be present at the picnic to be eligible. A fine program has been arranged.

Meilen—

The post office safe was blown Sunday night by two cracksmen. Four hundred and fifty dollars and all the stamp books were taken. The robbers shot at the officers several times but got away with the booty.

Marquette—

The first arrest and conviction in this county under Wisconsin's weights and measures act, which was passed by the last legislature, took place Thursday. The defendant was Abe Cohen of Marquette. He entered a plea of guilty, although not admitting the offense in full, and was fined $25.00 and costs, amounting in all to $29.33.

The complaint was made by Walter Nichol, the city sealer of weights and measures. He had a friend purchase a peck of apples and then weighed them. A peck of apples is supposed to weigh twelve and a half pounds, but the peck purchased weighed but five pounds and five ounces, according to the sealer.

Grandon—

A petition is being circulated today for an election to be held on the 3d Tuesday in September, to vote for or against licensing saloons in Grandon at $500 per year. It is said that the petition was set going by people who have up to the present time opposed saloons at any price. These parties say that the licensing of saloons here will further a hotel project they have on. As the new recruits to the saloon cause are prominent business men it is easy to predict the result of the election.

Washburn—

Last week the Stearns Lumber Co. received at their mill in this city from Bad River one of the largest rafts of logs ever brought into the bay, containing about 4,500,000 feet of logs, and was brought here by the tugs Bayfield and Henry W., two of the largest and best tugs on the lakes. Only one other raft was ever brought here that was nearly as large, that one being brought here two years ago after the big flood in July, and contained something over four million feet.

The Monarch Film company of Milwaukee will have a representative here this week to take motion pictures of the county fair, the exhibitions, speed contests and etc. Pictures will also be secured of Merrill and Lincoln county. These views will be shown throughout Wisconsin and neighboring states at nickel theaters. It is deemed a clever advertising scheme for this city and vicinity.

Gladstone—

Peter Braus of this city and Emil Henning of Kipling were arrested Saturday charged with stealing fur robes from livermen in this city and in Escanaba. The arrests were made by Officers Danielson and Martell, who were successful ferreting out the case. Braus confessed to the stealing of nine fur robes. Four of the robes were found in the possession of Emil Henning, two of them in the possession of Van Dille of the Buckeye and three in Mr. Braus' possession. Two more robes were found in the Van Dille home, but these were stolen by a man who is now in northern Michigan.

CARNIVAL HAS FIRE

Wortham & Allen Shows Sustain Big Loss at Cedar Rapids

The Wortham & Allen Shows, the carnival company which appeared recently in this city, sustained a heavy loss by fire at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Saturday. A grain elevator near where the shows were exhibiting caught fire and flying sparks set several concessions ablaze. Four shows were destroyed, including the Edwards wild animal circus causing the death of many beasts. A snake sixteen feet in length was burned. It is estimated that the damage to the carnival company will entail $12,000. The animal show was one of the best attractions with the company and did a big business during its stay in Rhinelander.

Kidney Troubles Attack Rhinelander

Men and Women, Old and Young Kidney ills seize young and old. Come quickly with little warning. Children suffer in their early years—Can't control the kidney secretions. Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain.

Women worry, can't do daily work. Men have lame and aching backs. The cure for man, woman or child is to cure the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are for sick kidneys.

Have brought relief to Rhinelander people.

Rhinelander testimony proves it. Mrs. W. E. Snow, 910 Margaret St., Rhinelander, Wis., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been very beneficial to members of my family and I know that they can be relied upon to cure kidney and bladder trouble. One member of my family took this remedy when suffering from various symptoms of kidney complaint and in a short time was entirely relieved. I advise other persons afflicted with kidney complaint to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

THEY LIKED THE MUSIC

A dancing party was given at North Crandon Friday night for which music was furnished by Paul Gaston and Frank Jolin of this city on violin and piano. It was one of the most pleasant social gatherings ever held at that village. The dancers were highly pleased with the music and voiced their appreciation by frequent encores. It was necessary for the musicians to respond to nine encores on one selection. Dancing parties at North Crandon usually cease at the midnight hour but this event continued until nearly 4 o'clock a. m. The crowd simply couldn't break away from that hypnotizing music. All the latest selections were played.

Vote for Onondaga county's progressive candidate for state senate, Willard T. Stevens. He will work for the cause of the whole people.

Douglas Anderson was educated in the Rhinelander High school, has lived here for years and is interested in our betterment vote for him for assemblyman primary day.

If you wish to boost for Onondaga county and have great power in the state senate vote for Willard T. Stevens on primary day. Do not fail to get out and vote for him.

Willard T. Stevens declares himself a progressive republican, announces he will support the progressive measures in the state senate. Do not fail to vote for him if you wish the progressive cause continued and advanced.

We support Douglas Anderson for assemblyman because he has lived among us, knows our best interests and joins with us in them. He is a progressive thoroughly interested in the masses. Vote for him September 3rd.

An analysis of the men who have to pay the income tax shows clearly that it falls on rich men who have not been paying their honest taxes and takes the burden of the overtaxed poor. Governor McGovern supported this tax to relieve the common people and make the men with large incomes pay their just burden of taxation. Now you should vote for F. E. McGovern for governor in appreciation of his helping you.

EXPLANATION TO VOTERS

There is considerable misunderstanding as to the operation of the second choice in the primary election. In the first place it must be clearly understood that no second choice vote should be cast except where there are more than two candidates for the nomination in one party.

In those cases, every voter should cast a second choice or otherwise his first choice vote may be lost.

Cast your second choice vote for the man whom you would prefer to have the office in case your first choice can not secure the nomination. Do not vote for either your first choice's weakest or strongest opponent as your second choice vote can not be counted until your first choice has been eliminated from the race. Be sure to vote your second choice and insure the nomination of a candidate, who will be the choice of a majority of the electors.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET

The following is the republican county ticket. In the offices of clerk of circuit court, register of deeds, surveyor and coroner, there is no opposition, but give these candidates your vote to show your appreciation of their success as county officials.

In two other cases present officials have opposition, county clerk and district attorney. If these men have ability to do their work well and have served you (as a public) faithfully and honestly they are entitled to your vote, if not you should cast your ballot for the best candidate. We do not feel inclined to dictate how you shall vote but we aim to be honest and fair.

For County Clerk, Prescott Calkins; Wm. W. Carr, Barney Lorbert; County Treasurer, Pat Cain; H. D. Fletcher, Mike Holland, John Sheffer; Sheriff, Charles Amundsen; F. F. Johnson, Carl Krueger, John C. LePage, Lynn Vaughan, Coroner Charles DeCanter; Clerk of Circuit Court, E. C. Sturdevant; District Attorney, Charles W. Fricke, A. J. O'Melia; Register of Deeds, Charles E. Davis; Surveyor, D. H. Vaughan.

STEELE FOR COUNTY JUDGE

The entire bar of Onondaga county and a large number of progressive republicans of the county have endorsed Attorney H. F. Steele to fill the unexpired term of the late Levi J. Billings for the office of County Judge. City Attorney Steele, if appointed, would come to this office with a splendid record as a lawyer and a most practical experience in business affairs from a long tenure of office as city attorney. As a lawyer and a citizen, Attorney Steele has a high standing and we predict his appointment.

KAREL'S BAD RECORD

Senator LaFollette has an article in his magazine, showing the bad record of John C. Karel in the legislature of Wisconsin. He shows Karel against all laws in behalf of the masses and against labor unions. Read LaFollette's magazine of August 31, and you will not be a Karel advocate for governor. The men who can afford to pay their honest taxes and wish to dodge them, are for Karel but this is a most excellent reason why the common people should vote against him.

If you are a progressive, democrat and believe in laws for the masses, if you believe in Bryan and Wilson you cannot support Karel.

Karel is now neglecting his duties as judge, going around condemning the income tax to catch the votes of the rich tax dodgers and others whom these men can deceive.

INCREASE IN INCOME TAX

Dane county income tax assessment roll as applied to individuals, made public Tuesday shows a large increase in income tax over the personal assessment. University professors are hit especially hard, their personal property tax being small and their income tax, in a majority of cases being large. The largest individual taxpayer in Dane county W. D. Curtis, a manufacturer and president of the Commercial National bank, will pay $769.52 income tax as compared with the personal property tax last year of $34.

Former Gov. James O. Davidson will pay no income tax; his personal property tax last year, $3.50, will wipe out his income tax of $1.9.

C. B. Van Hise, president of the university, will pay $246.16 as compared with a personal property tax of $49.25 last year. Prof. D. W. Mead, consulting engineer, paid $1.37 personal property tax and this year will pay $613.12. T. E. Brittain, wealthy lumberman, will pay $550.98 as compared with $29.49 last year. C. P. Cury, state superintendent, paid $5.25 last year and will pay $53.55.

Table Shows General Gains

Others who will pay large income taxes follow:

Barry W. Jones, lawyer.....	36.31	$ 750.30
Wm. F. Vlasak, lawyer.....	1,941.19	1,266.87
C. K. Leith, university.....	29.30	42.70
Wm. H. Butler, lawyer.....	21.50	42.70
J. W. Montgomery, street car conductor.....	8.31	26.93

J. E. Davis, lawyer.....	22.77	26.93
F. G. Siebicker, supreme justice.....	4.37	59.98
H. K. Clarke, publisher.....	13.46	61.10

To Make Results Public

The income tax law places utmost secrecy around the personal facts which citizens are required to set forth in their tax statements, but provides that the net results of the law, namely, the amounts of tax levied against any individuals, corporations or partnerships, may be accessible to the public.

The state tax commission made public the results of the Dane county assessment, and for the purpose of more complete public understanding of the comparative effectiveness of the new and old laws, the personal property tax figures of last year were used, being taken from the public tax records of Madison.

N. P. Haugen, chairman of the state tax commission, said today that as soon as the boards of review in the several counties have completed their work, the commission purposes, by a general order, to direct that the results of the income tax throughout the state be made accessible to the public. This order however, will not cause revelation of the facts contained in the individual income tax returns nor reveal any information upon which the calculation of the individual taxes are based.

VOTE FOR THESE MEN

Vote for the following men at the primaries by putting an (X) after their names. They are intelligent and just and will work for your best interests:

TO MR. EVERYDAY CITIZEN: A PLAIN, TIMELY TALK

Say, Mr. Everyday Citizen, let us have a good, earnest talk about this state income tax law. Your vote this year is going to help determine the question of whether or not it shall be repealed. You want to be prepared to vote in accordance with the demands of enlightened public interest and with reasonable regard for your own interest. You should vote with your eyes wide open.

Bear in mind, please, that the tax is graduated according to incomes. Small incomes are exempt altogether, ordinary incomes are taxed little, if at all, and larger incomes are taxed according to their size. The design of the law, in brief, is to impose more of the burden of maintaining government upon those who are best able to bear it.

Under the law, 70 per cent of all revenue from income taxes is returned to the town, village or city, and 30 per cent to the county, from which the money comes. The state retains only 10 per cent to reimburse itself for the expense of administering the law. Thus the new system is designed not only to compel men enjoying large incomes to bear their share of the expense of maintaining government, an obligation which in very large measure they have evaded in the past, but it is expected that it will result in a proportionate reduction in the taxation for local purposes—in the kind of taxes that are most burdensome to the small landholder, whether city home-owner or farm-owner.

Turn over in your mind, Mr. Everyday Citizen, the names of men living in your community, professional men, high-salaried men, holders of dividend-paying or interest-bearing securities, and commercial and manufacturing firms and corporations, particularly individuals with incomes ranging from $5,000 to $25,000 a year, and upward, and figure out whether they have been paying as heavy taxes in proportion to their wealth as you have been paying. You will find that they have been paying far less than their share. You will find that men possessing incomes of $10,000, $12,000 and $15,000 a year, and more, have been paying no taxes except upon their homes and upon a small amount of personal property. Some of them may be renting the houses in which they live and thus escaping the payment of any land tax. They may not have reported any personal property thus escaping taxation of any kind.

One thing is certain, and that is that in more than nine cases out of ten these men have not been paying their just share of taxes. Many of them possessing incomes several times the size of your own, or owning stocks and other personal property worth several times more than all your own earthly possessions, have actually not been paying as much in taxes as you have been paying all through the years. Your little home, your little farm, is visible. It cannot escape the assessor's eye. The property from which many of these men derive their income is invisible, consequently these men have escaped taxation—largely escaped it in some cases and wholly escaped it in others. What has been the result? Simply that you have not only been paying your full share of taxes, but enough MORE than your share to help make up the difference between the total amount needed by state, county, city and town, and the amounts that these other fellows failed to pay.

Here in Milwaukee is this case, typical of many: A manufacturing company, very prosperous and paying big dividends upon its capital, was taxed last year, under the old system, upon a total valuation of only $7,000. Now, under the income tax law, it admits having a net income of $77,000, and upon this large amount it must now pay taxes. It is probably now paying its just share. Previously it paid for less than its just share and you and every other Everyday Citizen helped to make up the difference.

Here is another case, officially reported from Madison, which is also typical of many: A professional man, with a good sized income, who never paid more than $3.50 a year in personal taxes, will, upon his own showing, be compelled to pay an income tax of $60 this year. Heretofore you and every other Everyday Citizen have been helping to pay his just share of taxes. Now he will have to bear his share of the burden, as will many others, and you will be called upon to pay your share only, instead of MORE than your share.

We assure you, Mr. Everyday Citizen, that many more cases like these might be cited by way of illustration. You will be able to learn of similar cases in your own neighborhood. All will show that under the income tax many other men of means are being required, for the first time, to make rightful contributions to the public treasury. Suppose you go a little further and ascertain whether the tax burdens of men like yourself, of men who work with their hands for a livelihood, of average clerks, or small farmers, or even ordinary shopkeepers, are appreciably increased, or are increased at all, by the income tax?

Nothing except threats comes from those whose tax-dodging opportunities seem to be vanishing. They declare that they will take their money out of the state. Many of them, of course, cannot do this, for their money comes from the state and from the people of the state, but aside from this, let us ask them whether the spirit which they thus manifest is the spirit that makes for a great state or a great nation—or makes even a decent citizen? Is it not the spirit of a man who thrives on society and yet recognizes neither social duty nor social justice? Why, were it not for society, these men would have no property. Society it is which gives them what they have and protects them in their use of it. The least that they can do is to do their part in maintaining society.

To decide the income tax question in the right way, Mr. Everyday Citizen, just take a keen, careful view of the situation. Find out who the loudest and most active opponents of the income tax are, get some idea of the amount of taxes which they have been paying and of the larger amount that they will have to pay under the income tax law. Make up your mind whether they are conscientious or not—whether they are acting in the interest of all, including their poorer neighbors, or WHETHER, having evaded paying their just share of taxes for many years, they are not simply "sore" and angry because at last they are in danger of being brought to book.

There is a sharp conflict between the interests of the honest taxpayer and those of the dishonest tax-dodger. Take heed, Mr. Everyday Citizen. Stand for the income tax idea and you stand for a measure designed to advance your own interests and the interests of the mass of the people. Stand against it and you stand for the tax-dodger—you help him to keep on dodging taxes.

Study the question. Make no mistake. Don't permit yourself to be fooled by those who are trying to induce you to cheat yourself and help them cheat the public.

FATHER ROUSED THE BOY

Follows Doctor's Advice and Casts the Lure That Tempts Fleeting Ambition.

"The boy is all right," said the doctor, "but you want to talk to him and rouse his ambition. Promise him that you will take him somewhere when he recovers sufficiently to go out—to a vaudeville show, for instance; talk to him about playing with the boys; there are lots of ways in which you can interest him."

Then the doctor addressed the boy, who was just recovering from a fever, saying:

"Come, Tommy, cheer up, my boy; wouldn't you like to go and play with your schoolmates?"

A faint smile stole over the boy's face, but that was all.

"Stop, sir," said the father; "I'll arouse him. See here, Tommy," he asked, addressing the boy, "wouldn't you like to go out and throw a stone through Mother Bibb's candy shop window?"

The boy immediately sat up in bed and asked for his clothes.

"I thought that 'd rouse the boy," said the father, with a proud smile. "He's all right, doctor."—Kansas City Journal.

Wouldn't War on the Ministry.

There are some drawbacks to the teaching of language by sound, especially where the younger school element is being instructed by that system. In one of the first grade classes of the Greenwood school lately the teacher was endeavoring to drill the Band of Mercy slogan into the young brains. One clause of the "resolve" is an injunction to be "kind to all harmless living creatures." Somehow the pronunciation of three phrase did not quite suit and the teacher asked for a repetition, and still there was something queer about the way it was repeated. Finally she requested one member of the class to say it to himself, and while she could not yet quite see what was the matter it did not sound right.

"Now, Tommy, say it over again slowly, I resolve to be kind to all harmless living creatures," said the teacher, bound to get the straight of the matter.

Tommy repeated slowly, and while there seemed to be nothing exactly wrong with the rest of the sentence, the final word sounded off color.

"Is that 'creatures' you are saying there, Tommy?" asked the puzzled teacher. "Say it all again."

With the sweetest resignation in the world the boy repeated, "I resolve to be kind to all harmless living preachers."—Kansas City Journal.

Water for Nervousness.

A trained nurse says: "If people would only drink more water they would not be so nervous." Nearly every doctor will recommend a woman who is suffering from nervous prostration or nervous exhaustion to drink lots of water between meals, but many women who do not come under a doctor's care would look better and feel better if they would drink at least a quart of water in the course of the day. Water seems to be a nerve food like good butter. It has a distinctly soothing effect when sipped gradually, as one can test for herself. Water drunk slowly and gradually has somewhat the same quality as deep breathing.

Women Anxious to Serve.

More than twice as many women as could be used applied for enlistment in the Women's Sick and Wounded Convoy corps, the newest adjunct to the British army. The corps takes part in practice drills, makes its own camp, does stretcher work and otherwise gets practical training for the regular service. When enlisting the women accepted by the recruiting officer receive the king's shilling, which binds the bargain and makes the woman legally obliged to serve as part of the military establishment of the United Kingdom.

RUSSELL AGAIN WINS THE TROPHY

Company L. Marksman Gets Highest Honor in State Rifle Shoot

Artificer J. H. Russell has for the second time within three years captured the Cook trophy for the highest score as competitor in the state rifle-shoot of the Wisconsin National Guard. His score of 1611 surpasses all record on the state rifle range at Camp Douglas and will probably not be equalled for a number of years unless it is done by Russell himself. He was 53 points ahead of the next highest man, Private Gay of the Third Regiment.

Experts consider Russell's record as remarkable and more so in the light of the fact that the weather conditions under which the shooting was done were unfavorable.

It was planned to give Russell a demonstration on his return to this city but those in charge were unable to learn the time of his arrival. A reception in his honor will undoubtedly be held later, possibly upon the arrival of the trophy.

The trophy won by Russell is the presentation of Mr. Cook of Neenah and costs about three hundred dollars. It is a bronze shield on a wood background. It will be placed in the Armory. When the trophy was first won by Russell it was not completed.

HUNCH GYPSIES ONWARD

A dozen or more gypsies were ordered out of the city yesterday by Chief of Police Straub, who had been advised by the police of other cities that they are a pilfering, lawless bunch. This tribe has been wandering through the towns of Northern Wisconsin trading horses, or stealing them when the opportunity presented, and causing the authorities no end of trouble.

AROUND THE CIRCLE

Mrs. R. J. McIntosh spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. McLaughlin.

Mrs. Fletcher of Antigo is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dell Mattoon at Hat Rapids.

Miss Magala Hagen is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sam Walters, in the town of Pelican.

Alfred Schiedeger and A. E. Hixon are spending a few weeks in the west in quest of a new location.

Theodore Ledisore has moved into his new home recently built along Crescent Creek.

Gust Kussin has recently purchased the farm known as the Byron Johnson farm of Chas. Stinart.

Mrs. Thomas Sweo spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. August Kreuger, in the town of Crescent this week.

Mrs. F. W. Bowels returned from Milwaukee Thursday after spending a month visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Lushan.

After spending a few days visiting among friends in Wausau, A. C. Hade returned this week Tuesday bringing with him a blooded colt.

A. C. Leonard of Antigo recently purchased one of Charley Stinart's farms located on Noisy Creek and has commenced farming in earnest.

Miss Hannah Kullerberg writes her numerous friends on the "flats" that the weather is very hot where she is visiting at South Bend, Ind.

Miss Myrtle Schlichting of Sault is now in the culinary department at the McIntosh home and handles that branch to the Queen's taste.

David Gustavson has moved upon his new farm recently purchased from R. C. Ludke and is now taking care of the crops which were bought with the place.

A basket social will be given by the Grange of Pelican at their hall Saturday afternoon to be continued in the evening by a dancing party. All are cordially invited to come and bring a well filled basket.

A splendid crowd gathered at the Grange Hall in the town of Crescent Saturday evening for the purpose of tripping the light fantastic and the way they enjoyed themselves was not slow. A large crowd came out from the city to enjoy the event and all pronounced it a great success and after partaking of light refreshments and enjoying themselves until about 2 a. m. departed for their various homes.

STUDENTS WANT BOARD

A number of young people from this and adjoining counties have applied for admission to the Training School Monday, September 2nd. Their letters contain one or the other of these two questions: "Where can I get board and room and at what price?" and "Can I get a chance to earn my way by doing housework?" Residents of the city who are willing to take these young ladies to board or who wish some student to help them with their work are asked to notify the Principal of the Training School, giving all particulars.

PROCLAMATION

Monday, September 2nd, 1912, the day set apart by law for general and particular recognition of the dignity of Labor, I proclaim that every citizen by his acts on that occasion and every business that possibly can close should do so, thereby adding their sincere observance commemorating the true spirit of Labor Day.

SPECIAL PRIZES ARE ATTRACTIVE

STATE FAIR PROVIDES MANY INTERESTING COMPETITIONS OUTSIDE SCHEDULE.

FEATURES IN ALL DIVISIONS

Board of Agriculture and Private Individuals and Institutions Encourage Particular Classes.

INCREASES GENERAL INTEREST

An unusually large number of interesting special prizes will be offered at the State Fair this year. The regular premium list, as published by the State Board of Agriculture, covers a great variety of regular exhibits and the prizes are liberal. However, not only the Board of Agriculture, but many private persons, institutions and organizations, offer cash prizes, medals and cups for exhibits along lines of special interest.

These prizes are intended to encourage interest in special research in agricultural lines, also to elevate state standards in livestock. Many prizes thus are offered which could not well be included in the regular premium list, but which are of great benefit in their special cases.

Prizes for Horses.

In the classes for horses the Percheron Society of America provides more than a dozen special competitions, in many instances offering first, second and third competitions. The Wisconsin Horse Breeders' association provides special competitions for percherons and Clydesdales bred in Wisconsin. The American Shire Horse association offers four silver cups for winners in special classes of American and foreign bred Shire animals. There are also special classes in the horse department for Wisconsin farmers.

In the cattle division many special Aberdeen-Angus classes with prizes are provided by American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' association, also the American Guernsey Breeders' Ass'n provides special prizes for Guernsey cattle. Charles S. Hill, Rosendale, offers a silver cup for Guernsey cattle from one sire, the cup to be the permanent property of the person winning it twice in succession. The American Jersey Cattle club offers numerous special prizes for Jerseys. Mrs. Adda F. Howie, Elm Grove, offers a prize of $10 for the best 2-year-old Jersey heifer.

The American Shropshire Registry association provides many special Shropshire classes in the sheep division. Also the Wisconsin Sheep Breeders' association has provided prizes for special classes for various kinds of sheep. The American Oxford Down Record association, the American Southdown association, the American Hampshire Sheep association, the American Cotswold Registry association, the Wisconsin Lincoln Breeders' association and the Cheviot Breeders' association offer valuable prizes in many special classes of the sheep for which the associations were named. The American Angora Goat Breeders' association also provides several special classes and prizes for Angora goats.

Additional Swine Competitions.

In the swine division, numerous special prizes are offered by the Wisconsin Swine Breeders' association, the Wisconsin Poland China Breeders' association, the Wisconsin Berkshire association, the American Chester White Breeders' association and the American and National Duroc Jersey associations.

In the dairy department the American Holstein Friesian association offers a silver cup for the registered Holstein Friesian cow which has the highest milk and cream score.

In the seeds and grain department the following seed companies offer numerous special prizes: S. S. Olds Seed Co., Madison; W. Allee Burpee & Co., Philadelphia; John Salzer Seed Co., La Crosse, and the Durney Seed and Nursery Co., Yorkton, S. D. Farmers and others contemplating taking exhibits to the State Fair will find it to their advantage to study the special premiums which are described in connection with the regular premium list.

REAL JUDGES AT FAIR.

The Wisconsin State Fair will be favored with real judges. The Board of Agriculture will tolerate no other kind. All distributors of awards are requested by the board to be fair in their conclusions, also to rule out inferior exhibits.

AND THE PUMPKIN, TOO.

That's a "whopper" of a pumpkin. Why don't you take it to the State Fair? Say, but it would make the eyes of those city fellows "bug out," especially when they remember those thin market pies with which they are acquainted.

ARE YOU THINKING?

Say, you lads! Are you getting that trio of bantams ready for the State Fair? Better be at it. Father, how about the big yearling? Giving him any special care so as to make him ready for the big show?

FLASHES FROM THE HEADLIGHT

Bits of News Pertaining To The Soo and Northwestern Railroads

The engine and five coaches, including the baggage and mail cars of a Soo line passenger train, were derailed west of Withee on the Chicago division a few days ago. One car turned completely over. The accident occurred just off a bridge at the end of a dangerous curve.

It is rumored that the Soo is planning on buying the Wisconsin & Michigan railway and that the company proposes to build a line from Peshtigo, Wis., to Green Bay and from there to Neenah to connect with the Soo line Chicago division.

Master Mechanic Shepherd is getting four F9 engines in condition to be turned over to the Minnesota division to be used in hauling wheat to Duluth and Minneapolis. No. 451 is the first engine of this type to be sent out.

F. W. Louks has been given the position of ticket agent at the Soc line's new depot in this city. Mr. Louks was formerly agent for the company at North Crandon and he has moved his family here from that village. F. T. Stevens of Albany Minn., succeeds Mr. Ipuku as agent at North Crandon.

There has just gone into effect on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad an order changing the style of sleeve decoration, by which the length of service of conductors is distinguished. Heretofore conductors have worn gold strips around half their sleeve for each five years of service, so that if a man were in the service forty years he would have eight stripes.

Under the new ruling, the decoration for each five years' service will be a small gold bar and for each twenty-five years of service a handsome gold star. By way of illustration, a conductor, who has been twenty years in the service will have four gold bars on the edge of his left coat sleeve, and five years later the bars will be replaced by a gold star.

A number of conductors, who have been in the service a great many years, will receive a star, to say nothing of one, two or three bars in addition.

WITH COL. ROOSEVELT

Bert E. Marlin, a graduate of the Rhinelander High school in the year 1893, has been admitted to the supreme court of Michigan and has been selected to accompany Col. Roosevelt in his private car, around the circle.

Mrs. C. P. Martin of this city will meet her son Sept. 5th at St. Paul, where the party will be due at 7:30 a. m. Long illness will prevent Mr. C. P. Martin from accompanying Mrs. Martin to St. Paul.

Arthur Woodcock, Lloyd Dolan and George Pecor went to Antigo today.

Mrs. Chas. Woodcock and children who spent the summer with Mr. Woodcock at Neopit, returned to Rhinelander, Saturday.

COUNTY FAIRS AT STATE EXPOSITION

EVERY COUNTY IN STATE EXPECTED TO BE REPRESENTED BY SPECIAL EXHIBIT.

ALL CHANCES ARE EQUAL

Prizes Will be Offered and Judges Will Consider Local Conditions and Characteristics

REMARKABLE GROWTH IN TWO YEARS

Seventy-one county fairs will comprise the Wisconsin State Fair if efforts of the management avail. It is the purpose of the Board of Agriculture to have every county in the state represented by appropriate displays in the county exhibit department.

This policy should not be taken as in opposition to county fairs. On the contrary, the Board of Agriculture and all of the officials of the State Fair are anxious to encourage all county expositions. It is believed that the people of the state, the county fairs and the State Fair, will derive great benefit from this collection of representative exhibits at the state exposition.

Contest Chances Count.

Prizes will be offered in this county exhibition competition. The classification will be such that all counties will stand equal chances. The newer counties of the northern part of the state may enter the competition with encouragement equal to that of the older districts of the south. In judging, natural characteristics of each community will be accurately considered; such, for instance, as distance from the State Fair, character of agriculture which prevails, and production per acre. The only restriction will be that each exhibit shall be comprised of productions from the county which it represents.

George F. Comings, superintendent of the county exhibit building, already has made arrangements for great enlargement in his department this year. The board has acquiesced in his plans and has granted the use of the middle space in the county exhibit building, heretofore occupied by fairs, to the Wisconsin State Experiment association, for an exhibit of seed grains and other agricultural products, appropriate in connection with the county displays.

The county exposition is a new venture with the Wisconsin State Fair. Two years ago scarcely more than one-tenth of the counties of the state were represented. Last year nineteen counties provided excellent exhibits, all under the auspices of county boards of supervisors, or local agricultural societies. It is the assurance from such organizations that gives reason to believe that every county will be represented this year.

Will Study Seed Grains.

Special attention will be given to exhibitions of pure seed grains, as Wisconsin is in the lead in the crop improvement campaign. Special encouragement in this particular is offered by the Milwaukee Chamber of Commerce, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, the Chicago & North-Western railroad, the Soo line and other institutions and corporations interested in the agricultural and industrial development of the state.

The county exhibits building will contain one of the most important features of the State Fair.

"TENTED CITY" AT BIG FAIR

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE PROVIDES FEATURE FOR BENEFIT OF PATRONS.

Novel Municipality to be Favored With Light and Water and Will Have Superintendent and Police.

The "tented city" will be one of the original features of the Wisconsin state fair this year. The plat and the canvas houses will be provided by the fair management, and fair patrons desirous of spending practically all of their time on the grounds and enjoying a real outing while at the exposition, will populate the novel community.

Other states provide tents for ground police and such officials as must spend the nights on the grounds and prefer the outdoors. But this is the first instance in which the "tented city" has been designed as a real feature. Water and light will be provided and the unique municipality will be in charge of a special superintendent and thoroughly policed.

The fair management will provide the "furnished houses" by reservation, at cost. A patron may secure anything from a 10x12 4-foot wall tent at $1.50, to a 30x40 cottage or family compartment, 8-foot wall canvas at $6, for the entire period of the fair. Also cots, tables, chairs, stools and blankets will be at hand for rental at cost prices.

Miss Cartwright's Constancy

"If Amelia Cartwright would pay a little more attention to the love of the living and less to that of the dead, she might be happier, and save Amos Tilghast from wearing his heart out." Mrs. Lowell stabbed her needle viciously into the sock she was mending and rocked violently.

"Amelia has a constant nature," said Ann Briggs.

"Constancy is all right if there's any reason for it," said Mrs. Lowell, "but everybody knows that Charles Burroughs wasn't true to her before he died. He was engaged to two girls at once."

"But Amelia doesn't know it," said Miss Ann, gently, "and it would hurt her to know."

"Well, wouldn't it be better for her to be hurt a little and get waked up to the fact that it is Amos who has really loved her all these years and who deserves to get her?"

"Well, I don't know," said Miss Ann. "I hate to see Amos hurt and I hate to see Amelia hurt. Love is love, and I guess most of us have to suffer for it."

"There she goes, now," said Mrs. Lowell, glancing out of the window. "I knew she would. Every Saturday she's off to the cemetery with a wreath of pink flowers. Sometimes it's roses and sometimes it's sweet peas and sometimes it's verbenas. But it's always pink."

"Poor thing," said Miss Ann. "That's what hurts Amos so," said Mrs. Lowell. "He knows Amelia hasn't enough to live on and he has plenty. And I think he knows, too, that she would love him if she would let herself. He said to me not long ago: 'Aunt Carrie, when I talk to her about it, she just cries and says, 'Please don't. Poor Charles thought I had it in me to be constant—and I want to be faithful to him—I want to be faithful.'"

"There goes Amos now," said Miss Ann. "Do you know he's got some pink roses in that paper? I believe he's on his way to the cemetery."

"Well, he'll meet Amelia there," said Mrs. Lowell, "and I guess she'll be touched to see that he has remembered Charles."

But Amelia, sitting forlornly at the foot of her lover's grave, was to meet some one else before Amos, for a slender little woman approached and asked, "Is this the grave of Charles Burroughs?"

"Yes," said Amelia.

The girl unwound yards of waxed paper from about a magnificent wreath. It was evidently made up by a city florist, of pink hot-house roses, and valley lilies, with maiden-hair fern veiling the whole.

"Oh," gasped Amelia, "how beautiful!"

"He always loved pink," said the girl.

Amelia looked up startled. "You knew that?" she asked.

"Yes," said the girl. "When I wore pink bows on my hair he always admired them. And there was a little pink lawn dress that he made me wear the night he left me."

"He died ten years ago," said Amelia. "It is a long time—did you know him—just before he died?"

The girl nodded. "He lived out west in the same town where I taught. And we were engaged." She did not see Amelia's start of surprise.

"He came east—just to see his folks, he said, and then he was to come back—and we were to be married."

"Then he died," the girl's voice went on, "and all these years I have wanted to come and lay a wreath on his grave. I saved my money so that I might. And—now I am here—and I can't bear it."

Looking on the other's grief, Amelia wondered why she was unmoved. She wondered, too, at a certain lightness of heart. She felt free—free to live her own life, to love as she would.

She saw Amos coming up the hill. She bent over the sobbing girl. "He loved you," she said tensely; "you have that to comfort you."

Then she went swiftly down the hill and met Amos. "I don't just know what has happened to me," she said. "Take me away, Amos, take me where nobody can see me cry."

He led her to a place screened by a row of chairs. "What is it, dear heart?" he asked, tenderly.

She told him. "Was he—as sickle as that?" she demanded.

"Everybody knew it," he said, "but you."

Peruna Secrets You Should Know

Golden Seal, the root of the above plant, is a very useful medicine. Many people gather it in our rich woodlands during the summer. Few people know how valuable it is in dyspepsia, catarrh, and as a general tonic. Many thousand pounds of this root are used each year in the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna. This fact explains why everybody uses Peruna for catarrh.
